

Dear Parents and First Graders,

This summer, I encourage you to continue your learning by practicing many of the skills you learned in Kindergarten. You should continue to read, write, and practice math skills as much as possible. I have made a few suggestions to help you find books to read this summer. Every First Grader should read and complete the attached book reports for the books, The Listening Walk by Paul Showers, and Pearl and Wagner Three Secrets, by Kate McMullan. Bring your completed book reports with you the first day of school.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Bayarena
Your First Grade Teacher

Title The Listening Walk

Author Paul Showers

This story was about

My favorite part was

Handwriting practice lines consisting of four sets of three horizontal lines each. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

I liked this part because

Handwriting practice lines consisting of four sets of three horizontal lines each. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Here is a picture of my favorite part:

What did this story make you think about? Why? (What do you hear when you are on a walk?)

In chapter one why didn't Wagner want to know Lulu's secret?

In chapter two what was Wagner's secret?
